my dear Sir,

Your kind letter of the 6th instant to hand. Two copies of the 'Mysore Patriot' and 'Sampadabhyudaya' are sent by your peon, Subbiah. Dr. Reddy has written to Dr. Srinivasa Rao of the Training College, that he would regard it as a personal favour, if he accepts the Headmastership of the Mari-Mallappa's High School. The auditor comes on the 8th instant. If a pension of Rs 100/- is sanctioned and the same is made a charge on the Government grant, and if I am permitted to stay in the school till the end of this official year and if I be permitted to retire on my own desire and initiative, it will restore me to the reputation that I took nearly 44 years to build up.

Kindly bring this to the knowledge of the Dewan Sahib.

Yours Sincerely

In Venkata Krishnayya

To S. Hiriyannayya Esq.,
M.A. B.L.
